CREDENTIALS

Seating at Market Square Arena's press tables is restricted to accredited working media representatives. Non-working media will be seated in reserved seat areas when seats are available. Single game credentials must be requested no later than noon the day before the game (Friday noon for Sunday games). Requests may be made in writing to Dale Ratermann, Media Relations Department, Indiana Pacers, 300 E. Market St., Indianapolis, Indiana 46204 or by calling the Pacers' Media Relations office at (317) 263-2100. Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, media room and home and visiting lockerrooms. Those regularly assigned to the Pacers will be seated at courtside. Those requesting single game credentials will be seated on a first-come first-served basis. Pre-arranged credentials may be picked up before the game at the media gate. MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING PACERS' SEASON PASSES SHOULD NOTIFY THE MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE IF PLANNING TO COVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING.

MEDIA GATE – The media gate is located on the third floor level, northwest entrance of MSA (300 East Market Street). Only media members who hold Indiana Pacers or NBA media credentials will be admitted through this entrance.

MEDIA ROOM

Located on the northeast corner of MSA's floor level (3rd floor). We must limit media room usage to members of the media only when valid Pacers media passes are presented. It is impossible to accommodate family members, friends, guests or others. The professional intent of the room is to provide a meeting and working place for the media and game personnel. Any abuse of the media room and/or media privileges will cause forfeiture of your media pass.

SERVICES

Complete statistics along with pre-game press notes, line-ups, information regarding injuries, and other pertinent facts will be furnished by the Pacers' Media Relations Department. Play-by-play and halftime box scores will be delivered directly to the press table and complete final boxes, fourth quarter play-by-plays and coaches' quotes will be available immediately following the game in the media room. FAX – The Indiana Pacers will provide one fax machine for use in the media room.

PRESS ROW

Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere at press row. Smoking is prohibited on press row.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only those photographers on assignment will be allowed space on the floor and their photo credentials must be worn prominently at all times. Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, media room and the designated photographer areas on the MSA floor. Only television photographers doing post-game interviews will have access to lockerroom areas. Photographers are allowed only within the designated photographers' area at each end of the court. Spaces are allotted on a first-come first-served basis. Special instructions for photographers can be found on the photo pass.

LOCKERROOMS

Both the Pacers' and visitor's lockerrooms will be open up to 45 minutes before game time and 10 minutes after the game.

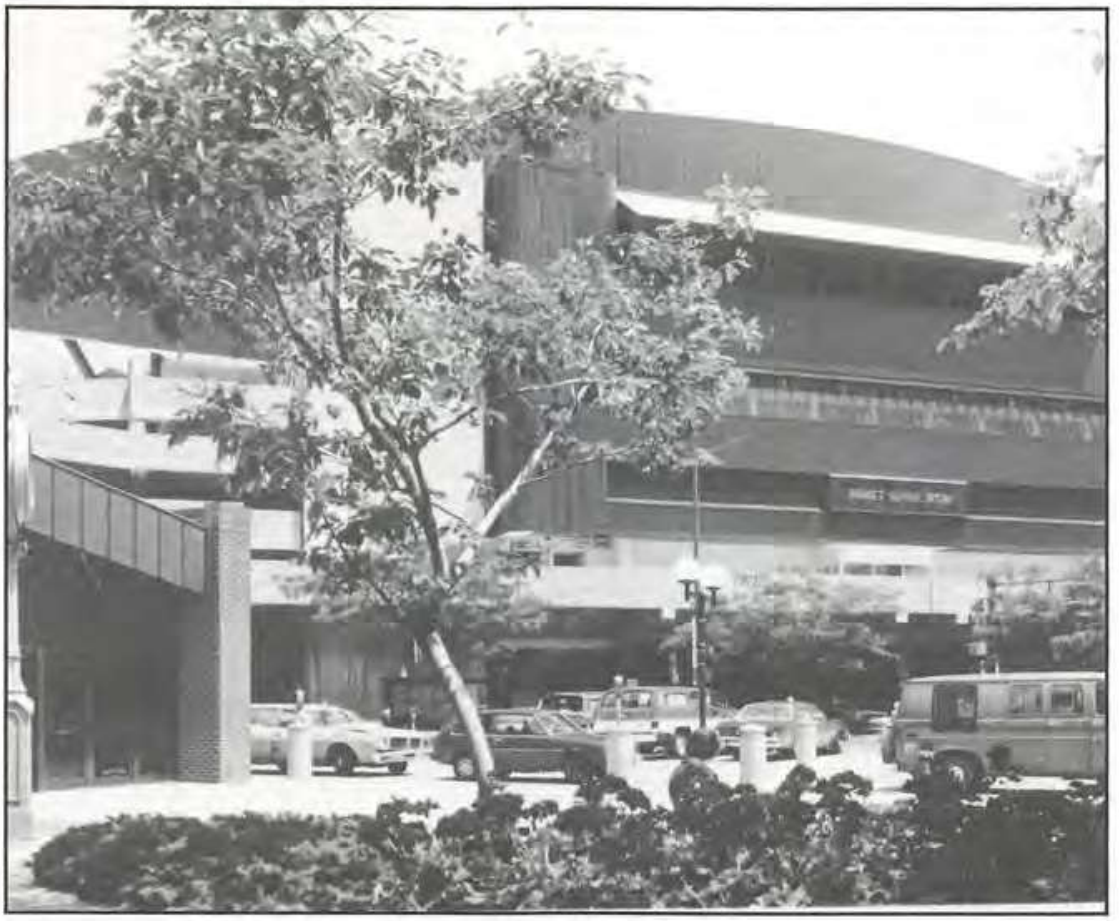
Market Square Arena



Market Square Arena, built by the city of Indianapolis and completed in 1974, is one of the premier sports and entertainment showplaces in the midwest.

The building was designed by Kennedy, Brown and Associates and constructed by Huber, Hunt and Nichols, Inc. Ground breaking ceremonies were held Oct. 20, 1971, and Sept. 15, 1974, the building was officially opened. The Pacers fell to San Antonio, 129-121, in double overtime in their first appearance in the building on Oct. 18, 1974.

Five nights later, Oct. 23, 1974, saw Indiana take its first victory in its "new" home as the Pacers dumped the Spirits of St. Louis, 122-107.

Market Square Arena highlights include the 1980 NCAA basketball semifinals and finals; the 1978 and 1979 NCAA basketball Mid-East Regionals; NBA's All-Star Saturday in 1985; the annual Indiana state high school basketball and wrestling championships; Elvis Presley's last concert on June 26, 1977; 1982 National Sports Festival; and 1987 Pan American Games basketball competition.

Site of countless sports and spectator events including circuses, rodeos, ice shows, major concerts, tennis and hockey, MSA has a seating capacity for concerts of 18,250; the same for boxing; 16,530 for basketball and 16,000 for hockey. All seats in the circular arena are free from posts and other obstructions of view. Prior to the 1984-85 NBA season, MSA underwent major reconstruction to include the most modern in handicap provisions and in 1988 a new animated color scoreboard and video replay screens were added.

The finest in dining is provided at Market Square Gardens restaurant, located on the seventh level on the west side of the building.

Sports In Indianapolis

McGUIRE STUDIO

"Indianapolis has never met a sport it didn't like."—TV Guide
"Now, 'India-No-Place' is Sportsville, U.S.A."—Business Week
". . . the place looks like a mini-Olympic site."—The Sporting News
". . . Indianapolis has become a state-of-the-art sports city."—Philadelphia Inquirer
". . . Indianapolis remains . . . the hottest sports locale in the country."—Sports Travel

These accolades represent what Indianapolis city leaders dreamed of achieving. In the late 1960s and early 1970s, after deliberately choosing to use sports as an economic and community development tool, the city began building sports facilities and executing marketing strategies to attract top sporting events.

Besides attracting fans and tourists, the publicity surrounding major athletic events, including the Indiana Pacers, results in national and international name recognition for Indianapolis. The events provide opportunities to showcase the city—not only as a sports center, but also as a tourist destination, a business destination, and a good place in which to live, work, and invest.

So far, Indianapolis has hosted 230 national and international events, built more than $165 million worth of facilities, and attracted numerous sports organizations.

Indianapolis has been the site of several major sporting events: the 1987 Pan American Games, the 1982 U.S. Olympic Festival, the Indianapolis 500-Mile Race, the NCAA Final Four basketball tournament in 1980, 1991 and 1997, the PGA Golf Championship in 1991, the World Indoor Track & Field Championships in 1989, the World Gymnastics Championships in 1991 and the AAU James E. Sullivan Memorial Award Dinner every year.

Ringthebell77 Collection

Owner

Born October 21, 1926, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Melvin Simon is Chairman of the Board and co-founder of the Indianapolis-based real estate development and management company that bears his name, Melvin Simon & Associates, Inc. (Simon).

Prior to creating the company in 1960 in Indianapolis with brothers Herbert and Fred, Mr. Simon worked as a leasing representative with the Albert Frankel Company, an Indianapolis developer of strip shopping centers.

Mr. Simon came to Indiana while serving in the U.S. Army when a transfer brought him to Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indianapolis. He attended the Bronx High School of Science and the City College of New York where he earned a B.S. degree in accounting.

After developing small retail community plazas in the early 1960s, the company began developing regional shopping malls and mixed-use centers. Today, the Simon company is the second largest manager and fourth largest developer of shopping centers in the nation. The Simon portfolio includes 171 centers in 35 states.

A firm supporter of professional and community groups, Mr. Simon is a Trustee of the Urban Land Institute (ULI) and a Trustee of the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC). He holds board memberships on numerous community and civic groups and organizations, and has received many awards and honors for his involvement.

Together, Mr. Simon and wife Bren have five children.

Herbert Simon

Owner

Born October 23, 1934, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Herbert Simon is President and co-founder of the Indianapolis-based real estate development and management company, Melvin Simon & Associates, Inc. (Simon).

Prior to creating the Simon company with his brothers Melvin and Fred in Indianapolis in 1960, Mr. Simon attended the City College of New York where he earned a B.S. degree in business.

After developing small retail community plazas in the early 1960's, the company began developing regional shopping malls and mixed-use centers.

A firm supporter of professional and community groups, Mr. Simon serves on the boards of directors of numerous community and civic organizations. He is also a prominent member of the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC).

Mr. Simon and wife Diane Meyer Simon have five children.

Donnie Walsh

President

When Donnie Walsh was named general manager of the Indiana Pacers in April, 1986, his goal was to establish a solid franchise and build a world championship team. With a highly competent front office and continual improvement on and off the court, the Pacers are well on their way. Consider these accomplishments:

- The Pacers have averaged 39 victories a season in the last six seasons, up from 25 wins a year in the five previous years. For the first time in the club's history, the Pacers have qualified for the NBA playoffs for three consecutive years.
- Attendance in Market Square Arena has reached all-time highs, with home averages for each of the last six seasons among the franchise's top seven averages.
- In 1988, Walsh was named president of the Indiana Pacers Corporation, which not only runs the Pacers, but directs the management of Market Square Arena.

Walsh, an assistant coach for the Pacers for two years before taking the G.M. position, began his coaching career after playing four years of basketball at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. For three seasons (1958-1961), he played under Frank McGuire (who directed the Tar Heels to the 1957 NCAA title). He played his senior season for then first-year head coach Dean Smith and was awarded Most Inspirational Player of the Year by the team.

After earning a bachelor of arts degree in Political Science from UNC, Walsh attended the North Carolina Law School where he was the associate editor of the Law Review. While in law school, he helped coach the Tar Heel freshman team for two seasons. Although he had offers to join then former vice president Richard Nixon's law firm in New York and the U.S. Justice Department's Honors programs, Walsh turned them down to take a graduate coaching position under Smith at UNC.

A year later, Walsh became the associate head coach under McGuire at the University of South Carolina and held that position for 12 years. In 1977, he passed the Bar Exam and was about to enter private practice when Denver Nuggets Coach Larry Brown, Walsh's running mate at guard at UNC, asked him to join the Nuggets' staff as an assistant coach. In that position for only a year and a half, Walsh took over the head coaching spot following Brown's resignation in February, 1979. He guided the Nuggets to a 19-10 record in the last two months of that season and ended his two years as head coach with a 60-82 record.

Following his stay in Denver, he went into private business, but returned to coaching when George Irvine was named head coach of the Pacers in the summer of 1984. Walsh then joined the Pacers as an assistant coach.

Walsh was a member of the U.S. Olympic Games committee for men's basketball, which selected the gold-medal winning "Dream Team" and coaching staff. He serves on the boards of many Indianapolis charities.

He and his wife Judy, both natives of New York, have five children and live in Indianapolis.

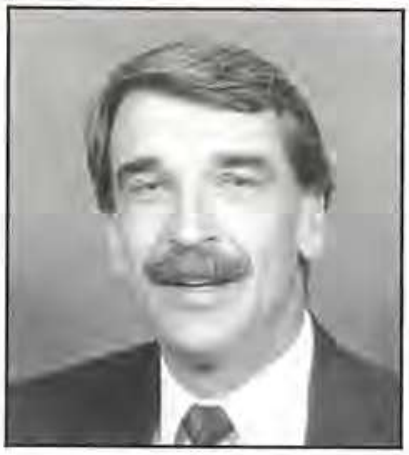
George Irvine



Vice President
Basketball Operations

In his 12th year on the Pacers staff, George Irvine has served the franchise as head coach, assistant coach, scout and now as vice president of basketball operations. From budgets to scouting, he keeps the administrative aspects of the team under control. With an expertise in scouting, Irvine scrutinizes college, CBA, European and current NBA players as potential players for the Pacers.

As the Pacers' head coach on two occasions (1984-86 and on an interim basis for part of 1988-89), he compiled a record of 54-130. Irvine joined the Pacers in 1980 as an assistant coach to Jack McKinney. After holding that position for three years, he took over the Pacers' draft efforts as vice president/director of basketball operations.

A native of Seattle, Irvine graduated from the University of Washington in 1970 and was drafted in the third round by the Virginia Squires. After playing five seasons in the ABA as a guard/forward, he played one season with the Denver Nuggets. When a chronic knee injury forced him to retire as a player, he switched gears and spent three years as a Nuggets' assistant coach under Larry Brown and Pacers President Donnie Walsh.

Irvine has two sons, Toby and Jaime, and lives in Carmel.

Greg Jamison

Vice President
Business Operations

For his sixth year, Greg Jamison directs the business side of the Pacers' front office. As vice president of business operations, he is responsible for overseeing the seven departments that run the daily activities of the club.

Before coming to the Pacers, Jamison worked for seven years as the Dallas Mavericks' Director of Marketing and Advertising. He was pivotal in raising the Mavericks from expansion team status to one of the most respected front offices in the NBA.

Before his stint with the Mavericks, Jamison worked as the Marketing Director of Athletes-In-Action for two years and was in education and education administration for five years.

A native of Idaho, he earned a bachelors' degree from Northwest Nazarene College and a masters' from Colorado State University. He is active in many Indianapolis charities and civic organizations, including the Indiana Youthlinks, cystic fibrosis, Ronald McDonald House and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

He and wife Vicki have two children and live in Carmel.

Dale Ratermann

Vice President
Administration and Media Relations

Dale Ratermann was promoted to vice president of administration last summer after spending six-and-a-half years as the club's media relations director. Ratermann is responsible for the administrative areas of the basketball, business and Market Square Arena operations, in addition to his media relations duties.

Ratermann has won the Howie McHugh/Marc Splaver Award, given to the outstanding public relations director in the NBA's Eastern Conference, five times, including each of the last three seasons.

Prior to joining the Pacers, Ratermann was the assistant sports information director at the University of Illinois for seven years. He graduated from Illinois in 1978 and attended graduate school at Arizona State University.

A native of Marion, Ill., Ratermann is single.

Bob Metelko

Chief Financial Officer

Bob Metelko joined the Pacers in November, 1984, as chief financial officer. Responsible for the finances of the Pacers and Market Square Arena, he oversees budgeting, cash management, financial reporting, insurance and employee benefits.

Metelko graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1967 with a degree in business administration and was drafted by the U.S. Army for a tour in the Finance Corps.

He moved to Houston in 1969 to work as staff auditor for Price Waterhouse, but left there in 1972 to join a small CPA firm in Greenwood, Ind. Metelko became a certified public accountant in 1973 and joined Merchants Bank as assistant controller a year later. He eventually became the vice president and controller before leaving to join the Pacers front office.

Originally from Lincoln, Ill., Metelko is married (Belinda) and has three children.

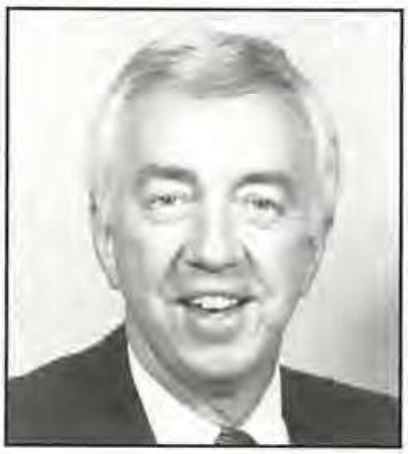
Pacer Announcers

Mark Boyle
Radio Play-By-Play

Mark Boyle is in his fifth season as the radio play-by-play announcer for the Pacers on WNDE and an extensive network. He also is the host of a nightly sports talk show on WNDE.

Boyle came to the Pacers from KMOX in St. Louis and WFAN radio in New York, arguably the two best sports stations in the country. He did play-by-play for the Minnesota North Stars of the NHL, the Minnesota Strikers of the MISL, NCAA football and basketball for the University of Minnesota and four other colleges and a variety of high school state championships.

Originally from Minneapolis, Boyle also has worked for stations in Minneapolis (KSTP), St. Cloud, Minn. (WJON), Dubuque, Iowa (KDTH), Detroit Lakes, Minn. (KDLM) and Miles City, Mont. (KATL).



Jerry Baker
TV Play-By-Play

For the third year, Jerry Baker is the Pacers' TV play-by-play announcer.

In the Pacers' inaugural ABA season in 1967, Baker began doing their radio broadcasts. After five years of radio, Baker moved to TV play-by-play for the Pacers and held that position until 1977. Since that time, Baker has continued to be heard as a popular disc jockey for WIBC radio and as the voice of the Indiana high school basketball state championship games. He can also be heard on the Worldwide Indianapolis Motor Speedway 500 Mile Race Radio Network.

Baker, a native of Sullivan, Ind., graduated from Indiana State University in 1961. He and wife Ramona live in Indianapolis.

Bob Leonard
TV Analyst

Bob "Slick" Leonard lends perspective to each Pacer telecast with his vast knowledge of basketball and his long-time experience working in the Pacers' franchise.

As the Pacers' head coach for 11 years, Leonard won 529 games and three ABA championships. From 1976-80, he served as the Pacers' General Manager. Before coming to the Pacers, Leonard played seven seasons in the NBA for the L.A. Lakers and Chicago Bulls, finishing his playing career among the league leaders in assists. Leonard was a member of the Indiana University 1953 NCAA championship team.

A native of Terre Haute, Ind., Leonard lives in Carmel with his wife, Nancy, and is a partner in Bobby Leonard Enterprises.

Clark Kellogg
TV Analyst

Once a familiar name on the Pacers' roster, Clark Kellogg now uses his basketball expertise in a different capacity. In his sixth season, he adds a different angle as an analyst on Pacer telecasts. He can also be seen as an analyst for a full schedule of college games for ESPN.

The first-round draft pick of the Pacers in 1982, Kellogg played five seasons before chronic knee injuries forced him to retire. With the Pacers, he had an NBA career average of 18.9 points and 9.6 rebounds per game.

Kellogg, a native of Cleveland, OH, attended Ohio State University where he was named the MVP in the Big Ten Conference in 1982. He is involved in many Indianapolis charities and civic organizations, most notably the Special Olympics and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

He and his wife Rosy have three children and live in Carmel.

Brian Hammons
TV Host

Brian Hammons, a familiar TV personality to Indianapolis sports fans, is in his fifth season as studio host for the Pacer games. For two years, he has also held the position of sports director at WXIN-TV.

Hammons first became known to viewers when he began his TV career at Butler University. During his four years there, he worked as a sports reporter. After his graduation from Butler in 1983, Hammons moved to an anchor position for WRTV-TV. Hammons also has extensive experience covering auto racing for ESPN, ABC, NBC and Prime Sports Network.

A native Hoosier, he and wife Lisa live in Indianapolis.

Coaches

Bob Hill

Head Coach

On Dec. 20, 1990, Bob Hill was named head coach of the Indiana Pacers. After holding the position for only a year and a half, Hill became the winningest coach (by percentage) in the club's history, compiled a record of 72-67 (.518) and guided the Pacers to consecutive playoff appearances.

Hill was quite familiar with inheriting a head coaching job in mid-season. Before replacing Dick Versace as the Pacers' head coach, Hill was named head coach of the New York Knicks 16 games into the 1986-87 season. In the 1987-88 season, the CBA's Topeka Sizzlers made him the head coach for the final 17 games.

Guided by Hill, the Pacers finished the 1991-92 season with a record of 40-42. For the third consecutive year, the Pacers appeared in the Playoffs, a Pacer first.

In his first half year as the Pacers' head coach, Hill moved Indiana from a 9-16 start under Versace to an impressive 32-25 finish under his leadership, including a 22-14 record after the NBA all-star break, the third best record in the Eastern Conference.

Before joining the Pacers as an assistant coach at the start of 1989-90 season, Hill was the head coach of Virtus Knorr in Bolgna, Italy. Under his direction, the team won the Cup of Italy and advanced to the Final Four of the Italian League Championship.

During the 1987-88 season, Hill worked as a scout for the Charlotte Hornets, a TV analyst for the New Jersey Nets and as the interim head coach for the Topeka Sizzlers in the CBA.

Hill graduated from Bowling Green State University and played minor league baseball in the San Diego Padres organization before getting his first coaching job as an assistant at Bowling Green in 1971. He left there in 1975 to join the University of Pittsburgh as assistant coach. Hill then moved to the University of Kansas in 1978 to become an assistant to Ted Owens and later to Larry Brown, current head coach of the L.A. Clippers.

After spending eight years at Kansas, he was named assistant coach of the New York Knicks under Hubie Brown. A year and 16 games later, he became the head coach and ended the season with a record of 20-46.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Hill and wife Pam have three children.

Ed Badger

Assistant Coach

The Pacers added nearly 40 years of basketball experience with the hiring of assistant coach Ed Badger last summer. Badger has been a basketball coach or scout since 1953.

Prior to joining the Pacers' coaching staff, Badger was an assistant coach and Director of Scouting for the Atlanta Hawks the last two seasons.

Badger earned an NBA championship ring in 1987-88 as an assistant coach and Chief Scout for the Boston Celtics. Badger had a two-year stint as a head coach with the Chicago Bulls (1976-78). In his two seasons as head coach, Badger compiled a record of 84-80 (.512). Badger led the Bulls to a record of 44-38 and a berth in the playoffs during the 1976-77 season. He was the runner-up in the balloting for the league coach of the year.

Badger has also spent time as a college basketball coach. He served as head coach for the University of Cincinnati for five years, compiling a 68-71 record. He was named Metro Conference Coach of the Year when he lead the Bearcats to a 16-13 record and a second-place finish in the post-season tournament

He is married and has four children.

Bob Ociepka

Assistant Coach

Bob Ociepka joined the Pacers in January of 1989 as assistant coach and head NBA scout. He is regarded as one of the top X-and-O assistant coaches in the league.

Ociepka's main job is to help prepare the Pacers for their opponents. For the past two summers, he has served as head coach for the Pacers' rookies and free-agents. Last summer, he led them to the top record in the Detroit Summer League.

Ociepka (oh-SEEP-ka) began his work with the Pacers after 19 years as a high school coach in Chicago. Before joining the Pacers, he gained NBA experience serving as a part-time scout and summer league coach with the Detroit Pistons.

A native of Chicago, Ociepka graduated from Quincy (IL) College in 1970. While there, he was a two-year starter on the basketball team.

He and wife Anne have one daughter.

Randy Wittman

Assistant Coach

After a successful nine-year playing career in the NBA, Randy Wittman joined the Indiana Pacers' coaching staff prior to the start of this season. Wittman played his last three and a half seasons in the NBA for the Pacers. Before being traded to Indiana in the middle of the 1988-89 season, he played for Sacramento and Atlanta.

Wittman holds the NBA record for most minutes (54) played in a playoff game without committing a foul and is fifth in NBA history for the most games (543) played without ever fouling out.

A native of Indianapolis, Wittman was an all-state selection at Ben Davis High School before attending Indiana University. He was a member of the 1981 NCAA championship team and was named co-player of the year in the Big Ten Conference as a senior.

Randy is married and has two children. He and his family live in Carmel.

Mel Daniels

Scout/Assistant Coach

A former Pacer himself, Mel Daniels coaches with an extensive knowledge of inside play, tutors big men like Rik Smits on being more aggressive, and serves as a scout for the organization.

A former all-pro and two-time ABA MVP, Daniels helped lead the Pacers to three ABA titles during his six years as a player with Indiana. From 1968-1974, he averaged 19.5 points and 15.9 rebounds a game. He was the ABA Rookie of the year in '69 and the 1971 All-Star game MVP.

As assistant coach at Indiana State University from 1978-82, Daniels was part of ISU's 33-1 NCAA championship runner-up team in 1978-79. Former Sycamore star Larry Bird credits Daniels with preparing him for the NBA.

An avid horseman, Mel lives in Sheridan with wife CeCe.

David Craig

Trainer

Regarded as one of the best trainers in all professional sports, David Craig has been with the Pacers for over 22 years and is the veteran of all Pacer employees.

Craig joined the Pacers in 1970 after putting his skills to work at the NFL's Detroit Lions and Minnesota Vikings summer camps.

A native of West Lafayette, IN, Craig studied under "Pinky" Newell, the man many consider the father of modern-day athletic training.

Not only does he work as the Pacers' trainer, but he also serves as president and co-founder of Indianapolis Physical Therapy and Sports Medicine, Inc., which has 80 employees at five Indianapolis locations. For the past three summers, Craig, along with his staff, has also sponsored student athletic training camps.

He and wife Linda have two children and live in a 150-year old home in rural Indianapolis.

NBA Terminology

Active List

The maximum number of active players is 12; the minimum is 11. At no time shall a team be permitted to dress fewer than eight players for a regular season game or nine for a playoff game. During the off-season and training camp, teams may carry no more than 20 active players.

Injured List

When a player on the Playing Roster is unable, due to injury or illness, to perform his duties, his name may be transferred from the Active List to the Injured List. Any player placed on the Injured List, who is replaced on his team's Active List, must sit out at least five of his team's regular season games before he may be restored to the Active List. No more than three players may be on a team's Injured List at any one time.

Ten-Day Contract

On or after the 55th day following the first game, a team may sign a player to a 10-day contract. This procedure may be used only to replace a player assigned to the Injured List. No player may be signed to more than two 10-day contracts with the same team.

Trading Deadline

No trades are permitted after 9 p.m. (EST) on the 16th Thursday of the regular season (that's Feb. 25 this season). From that point until the end of the regular season, player additions must be made through the waiver procedure or by signing free agents.

Waivers

From August 15 to the end of the regular season, clubs may claim waived players within 48 hours after notice. Players waived at any other time, may be claimed within 10 days. If no team claims the waived player, he becomes a free agent. If more than one team claims a waived player, the one with the lesser record at that time claims the player. The cost for a waived player is $1,000, payable to the League.

Guaranteed Contracts

On the 56th day of the regular season, all player contracts become guaranteed for the remainder of the season.

Renunciation of Amateur Eligibility

A person whose high school class has graduated and is at least 17 years old shall become eligible for the College Draft if he renounces his intercollegiate basketball eligibility by written notice to the NBA at least 45 days prior to the draft. Prior to 45 days before the draft, teams may not make direct or indirect contact with players who have eligibility remaining. Teams may contact players without remaining eligibility, but may not discuss compensation.

Salary Cap

The salary cap for the 1992-93 season is $14,000,000 per team. In order to ensure that the NBA players receive at least 53 percent of the league's revenues, teams will be required to spend a minimum of $11,334,000 on player salaries.

NBA Playoff Structure

The following is the NBA playoff format and tie-breaking procedure for the 1992-93 NBA season:

1. Sixteen teams shall qualify for the playoffs. There shall be eight teams from each conference, consisting of the two division champions and the six other teams in each conference with the best winning percentage during the regular season.
2. The first round of the playoffs shall be a best-of-five series with all succeeding rounds, including the NBA World Championship Series, being best-of-seven.

Following are the playoff pairings:

Note: Team 1 in each conference is the division winner with the better record. Team 2 is the other division winner and Teams 3-8 are ranked according to their regular-season winning percentage.

Playoff Tie-Breaking Procedure

In order to break a two-team tie for playoff positions, the following criteria will be used:

a) Results of games against each other
b) Better winning percentage within own conference
c) Better winning percentage within own division (only if tied teams are in same division)
d) Better winning percentage against playoff opponents in own conference
e) Point differential in games against each other
f) Better point differential between offense and defense

A multiple-team tie will be broken in the following manner:

a) Best cumulative winning percentage in total games involving all teams tied
b) Best winning percentage within own conference
c) Best winning percentage within own division (only if tied teams are in same division)
d) Best winning percentage against playoff opponents in own conference
e) Best point differential between offense and defense

If a multiple-team tie is reduced to a two-team tie at any point using the above criteria, the two-team tie will be resolved in accordance with the existing two-team tie-breaking procedure.

NBA Community Relations Programs

NBA STAY in SCHOOL™

The NBA, its teams and players share a commitment to supporting and improving the quality of life in their communities. On a national level, the NBA is involved in numerous public service initiatives.

Since 1989, the NBA and the National Basketball Players Association have worked to draw attention to this country's alarming dropout statistics through the national NBA Stay in School program. Created to urge students to graduate from high school, the Stay in School program uses the popularity and visibility of NBA players and coaches to encourage young people to develop self-esteem, set goals and dedicate themselves to learning.

NBA DON'T FOUL OUT

Say No to drugs.

Through public service announcements on TV and radio and other awareness-building projects, the NBA and its players also support the work of the Special Olympics, CARE, the National Committee for the Prevention of Child Abuse and Operation Prom/Graduation, a program that urges high school students to celebrate an alcohol-free prom and graduation season. The NBA also produces and airs PSAs saluting the birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr. and celebrating Black History Month each February. During the 1991-92 season the wives of NBA players and coaches developed a national program to highlight the importance of breast cancer screening for women.

How The Pacers Were Named

On Mar. 5, 1967, a group of Indianapolis businessmen purchased a franchise in the newly formed American Basketball Association. Indiana Professional Sports, Inc. was formed to own and operate the new franchise. On June 8, 1967, the team was named "Indiana Pacers" by General Manager Mike Storen.

The name was chosen because it would be a team for the entire state of Indiana and the organization intended to "set the pace" in professional basketball.
